

Corrigendum

Mehmet Penpecioğlu and Tuna Taşan-Kok (2016) Alienated and politicized? Young planners' confrontation with entrepreneurial and authoritarian state intervention in urban development in Turkey. European Planning Studies.

<http://dx.doi.org/10.1080/09654313.2015.1135233>

When the above article was first published online, Mehmet Penpecioğlu and Tuna Taşan-Kok's affiliation details on p. 1 were printed incorrectly and OTB Research for the Built Environment, TUDelft, was omitted. This has now been corrected in both the print and online versions to:

Mehmet Penpecioğlu^{a,c}, and Tuna Taşan-Kok^{b,c}

^aFaculty of Architecture, Department of City and Regional Planning, İzmir Institute of Technology, İzmir, Turkey; ^bFaculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences, Department of Human Geography, Planning and International Development, University of Amsterdam, Amsterdam, The Netherlands; ^cFaculty of Architecture and the Built Environment, Department OTB Research for the Built Environment, TUDelft, Delft, The Netherlands

When the article was first published online, the Funding section on p. 18 was also incomplete. This has now been corrected in both the print and online versions to:

Acknowledgements

The research was funded by TÜBİTAK (Scientific and Technological Research Council of Turkey) within the International Postdoctoral Research Fellowship Programme (2219). The publication of this article was also financially supported by TUDelft, Faculty of Architecture and the Built Environment, Department OTB for the Built Environment where both authors were affiliated during this study. The authors are grateful for both organizations for supporting this research. Any opinions expressed in this paper are, of course, solely the author's own.